COMPTROLLER'S MEMORANDUM NO. 2016-23

TO: Heads of Departments and Agencies

ATTN: Payroll Offices

FROM: Roderick K. Becker, Comptroller

SUBJECT: 2017 Standard Mileage Rate Announced by Internal Revenue Service (IRS)

The Internal Revenue Service has announced in Notice 2016-79 that the standard mileage rate to be used in computing the value of the business use of an automobile for 2017 is 53.5 cents per mile.

As a reminder, for those employees not covered by collective bargaining agreements which adhere to the IRS issued rates, any amounts paid in excess of the 53.5 cents per mile must be reported as a taxable income.

Please forward this information to offices in your department responsible for computing the taxable portion of mileage reimbursements to your employees.
