Parade Theme: Nā kahu o nā mea makamae – 125 years of the Bishop Museum

Parade Route and Staging

- Parade will start at King and Richards Street fronting the ‘Iolani Palace
 - Marching Units to stage makai of King Street on Richards
 - Please arrive by 8:00am, unless otherwise arranged with Parade Committee
- Upon passing the statue of King Kamehameha I, you will not be allowed to stop for any reason.
 - Stopping will slow the rest of the Parade down.
 - We ask that tribute to the King be made on the move with song, chant or gesture. At no time should anyone break away from your unit to approach the statue.
 - Please consider paying your respects during the Statue Lei Draping Ceremony on June 11, 2014 at 3:00pm.
- Turning right onto Punchbowl, passing Kawaiaha‘o Church
- Left onto Ala Moana Boulevard
 - Please be mindful of traffic as Parade will cross over from the mauka lanes to the makai lanes to allow for cruise ship traffic.
- Right onto Kalākaua Avenue
- Ending at Queen Kapi‘olani Park
 - No noisemaking from Kapahulu Avenue, C&C noise ordinance for the Honolulu Zoo.
 - Be mindful of Parade Volunteers directing traffic

Parade Guidelines

- The primary focus of this floral Parade is to honor and celebrate the legacy and memory of King Kamehameha I, unifier of the Hawaiian Island. Regardless of Parade theme, please keep this in mind while preparing for and participating in the King Kamehameha Celebration Floral Parade.
- Each entry must be submitted on an official parade application. No application, no entry.
- Incumbent politicians are welcome, however must represent only that office. No campaigning allowed in Parade.
- Parade Contact is responsible for making unit aware of and communicating all rules and regulations to, and understood by, the unit’s participants.
- The Parade Committee will determine suitability of all entrants. All decisions are final. All entries are subject to the approval of the parade committee.

Parade Day Guidance

- All entries must remain in the order assigned by Staging Crew.
- We require that you stay on the parade route and keep pace with the parade lead.
- For yours and the crowd's safety, no passing out or throwing anything from your unit. Watch for children along parade route.
- Please use adequate identification of your group or sponsor on your entry.
- Parade begins at 9:00am, assembly start times vary.
- Stay hydrated throughout the parade route, and apply sunscreen prior to parade start.
- NO FEE to enter.
- All participants must abide by the rules and regulations established by the Parade Committee.

- Marching Bands will be judged on marching ability and musicality.
- Full dress uniforms not necessary; at the discretion of the Band Director.
 - Keep in mind this Parade is in honor of a King.

The King Kamehameha Celebration Floral Parade Committee reserves the right of placement of all parade units. Placement will be determined by royal Hawaiian protocols, as well as for the most pleasant, safe, smooth-running parade possible.

Parade narrative: Due May 22, 2014 – Email to kainoadaines@gmail.com.

- ✓ Describe your organization and unit in less than 100 words; 22pt font preferred, one page.
- ✓ Narratives exceeding 100 words will be edited at the discretion of the Parade Committee.
- ✓ Suggestions:
 - Organization's purpose – what are you all about? Who are you?
 - Organization's history – date of establishment, notable members, etc.
 - List of members (and titles/offices if they hold any) in the unit
 - Materials used in construction of floats, sprays, lei, etc.
 - Past King Kamehameha Celebration participation information
 - Upcoming events or fund raisers for organization
 - Any relevant information you would like to include

- ✓ Narrative may be used for television broadcast, and will be read at all Announcer Stands along the Parade route.
- ✓ Due no later than MAY 22, 2014, but may be turned in earlier; any narratives or changes to narratives received after this date are not guaranteed to be included in the overall Parade Script. May be e-mailed to Parade Chair.
- ✓ Keep in mind, this is meant to be short, concise and to the point as the unit will be moving by while Narrative is being read by Parade Announcer.
