2014 Important Parade Reminders:

In the past I have left it to each entry to read the parade rules and regulations to make sure we all have a fun but safe experience honoring Kamehameha I and his lineage. But every year, we have a few that do not and so just in case I am attaching these highlighted reminders.

1. Commemoration more than Celebration – We want to remind everyone that there are different reasons for a parade and while we want to have a fun filled day sharing your talents and highlighting your organization, this parades function is to honor our ali'i nui and his lineage. Please consider this when creating what your participation will look like.
2. NO Stunts! No flipping, tossing, or stunting of any kind. No ones hands should ever touch the pavement or lack there of.
3. Cadence: Please maintain the same marching pace throughout the parade. There are to be NO stops, not even in front of a commentary station, especially to perform a skit, routine or exhibit anything.
 1. Pace – “Comfortable walking”: We want everyone to get a chance to see you, take your time, we don't want you to go to fast and march right through town. So please watch the marshals to make sure you are going at a good pace.
 2. Performance: If you are a performance based entry consider what a marching band would do – perform and keep moving, no stops! If this is a challenge I suggest a flatbed.
 1. Safety for flatbeds: Make sure the driver is well versed in a steady hand and slow even speed, to limit jerking and sudden stops where stance and balance are loss. If this is a challenge, suggestion: gestures and movements in a sitting position.
 3. Timing: Another reason for this is timing. We must be completed with the parade at a certain time. As much as I'd like it to last all day, we have a very small window to start and finish.
4. If you are a “for profit” entity there is a $25.00 donation to the event. If you are a “non-profit” you do not need to send this fee in.
5. Parade Marshals: if a parade marshal approaches you, please respect their mana'o as they are there to maintain the pace and safety of the parade.
6. Emergencies: There are police stationed at every intersection that feeds onto Front Street.
7. Parade End: You must end at Shaw St.
 1. Walking and Marching Units will be held in Kamehameha Iki Park.
 2. All vehicles will be sent down Shaw St. to disassemble where ever you came from.
 1. If you do not know where to go, you can drive to the Lahaina Hongwanji Mission, the first left on Wainee St. to park and decide.
8. 2014 Ho'olaule'a will be returning to Keawaiki, Lahaina Banyan Tree.
