      i. Curt Otaguro, Mark Wong, Kiman Wong, Ron Shiigi, and Courtney Tagupa were in attendance.
      ii. The meeting was intended to restructure the accounting operations of the E911 Board resulting from the loss of the Administrative Services Assistant (ASA) due to a hiring freeze and other anticipated downsizing resulting from the state budget crisis.
      iii. The following recommendations were discussed:
         1. Hire a consultant as permitted by §138-5, HRS to absorb the ASA’s responsibilities or consider requesting that the hiring freeze be lifted for the Board.
         2. Have the current accounting system transition to DAGS in concert with the implementation of the new accounting system.
         3. Have a third-party CPA firm take over the accounting operations.
         4. Although the statute does not dictate whether cash or accrual accounting should be used, accrual accounting is required for reporting purposes.
5. To expedite the audit process, the telecommunications service providers should provide forecasts of their surcharge fee revenue collections.
6. The Board will further evaluate these recommendations.
