The preliminary determination with findings of fact and conclusions of law shall be served upon the respondent by first class mail. As a courtesy, the commission shall send the preliminary determination with findings of fact and conclusions of law to the respondent by electronic mail; provided that the electronic mail shall not constitute service. If the respondent is a candidate, candidate committee, or noncandidate committee and the preliminary determination is mailed to the address contained in the organizational report of the candidate or committee, there shall be a presumption that the candidate or committee received the preliminary determination within seven business days of the preliminary determination being mailed.

(b) The respondent shall be afforded an opportunity to contest the commission's preliminary determination of probable cause by making a request for a contested case hearing under chapter 91 within thirty days of receipt of the preliminary determination. (e) All parties shall be afforded full opportunity to present evidence and argument on all issues involved.

(f) Any person who appears before the commission shall have all of the rights, privileges, and responsibilities of a witness appearing before the courts of this State.
