

Celebrating Ke Au Hawai'i:

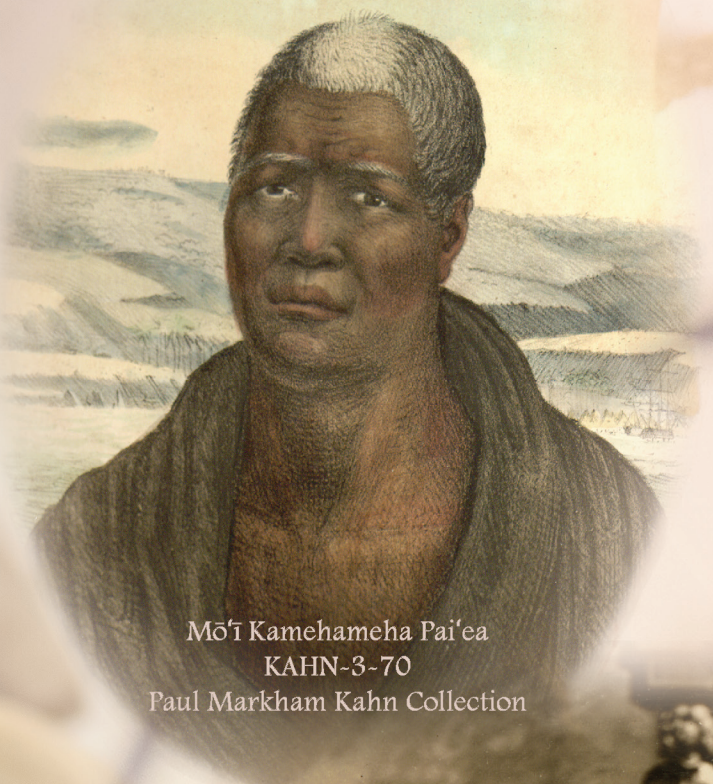

Year of the Hawaiian

The Hawai'i State Senate passed a resolution and Governor David Y. Ige signed a proclamation recognizing 2018 as the

"Year of the Hawaiian - Ke Au Hawai'i"

"Join us in understanding the value of Native Hawaiian cultural practices and recognize the Native Hawaiians for their achievements and contributions to music, sports, the arts, dance, writing, literature, medicine, law, history, social work, education, politics, business, science, Native Hawaiian culture and traditions, and Native Hawaiian language restoration and revitalization."

--Governor's Proclamation,
February 20, 2018

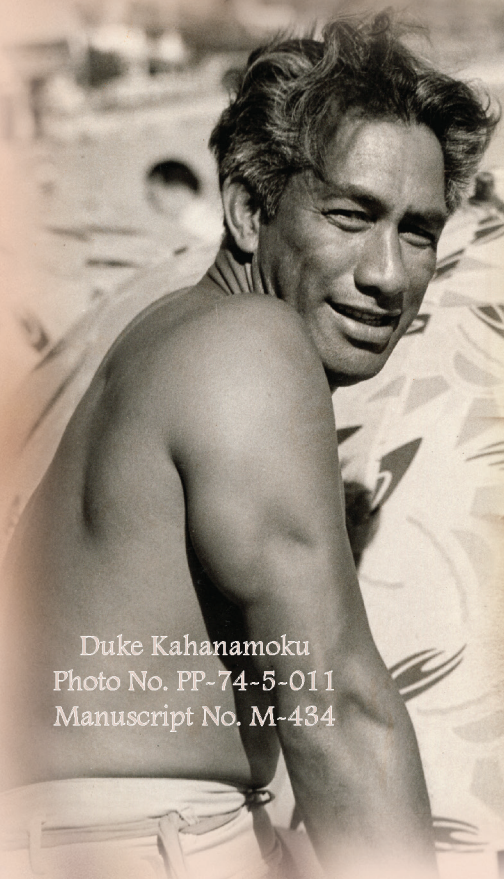

Mō'i Kamehameha Pa'ea
KAHN-3-70
Paul Markham Kahn Collection

Mō'iwahine Emma
Photo No. PP-96-3-026
Manuscript No. M-45

Hawaiian Fish Hooks, barb & shank
Artifact No. 329, 330, 331
Artifact Collection

Duke Kahanamoku
Photo No. PP-74-5-011
Manuscript No. M-434

Pā'u Riders
Photo No. PP-34-3-002
Photo Collection

Curtis P. Iaukea
Photo No. PP-73-3-016
Manuscript No. M-70

ARCHIVES MONTH
October 2018

Learn more about these individuals
@ <http://ags.hawaii.gov/archives>

Department of Accounting and General Services
Hawai'i State Archives

