Parade Route and Staging

- Drop off site, Punchbowl and King Street
 - Marshal in front of the Kalākaua Post Office on Richards and Merchant Streets
 - Be mindful of Parade Volunteers and check-in with Mr. Justin Clemente
- Parade will start at King and Richards Street fronting the ‘Iolani Palace
 - Be mindful of Parade Starter’s instructions
- Upon passing the statue of King Kamehameha I, you will not be allowed to stop for any reason.
 - Stopping will slow the rest of the Parade down
 - We ask that tribute to the King be made on the move with song, chant or gesture. At no time, should anyone break away from your unit to approach the statue
- Turning right onto Punchbowl, passing Kawaiaha‘o Church
- Left onto Ala Moana Boulevard
 - Please be mindful of traffic as Parade will cross over from the mauka lanes to the makai lanes to allow for cruise ship traffic.
 - Parade will marshal on Punchbowl to close gaps between units. Take direction from Parade staff.
- Right onto Kalākaua Avenue
- Ending at Queen Kapi‘olani Park
 - All Parade participants must adhere to City & County of Honolulu noise ordinances regarding the Honolulu Zoo. No music, horns or any other audible sounds beyond Kapahulu Avenue.
- Route subject to change.

Parade Guidelines

- The primary focus of this floral Parade is to honor and celebrate the legacy and memory of King Kamehameha I, unifier of the Hawaiian Island. Regardless of Parade theme, please keep this in mind while preparing for and participating in the King Kamehameha Celebration Floral Parade.
- Each entry must be submitted on an official parade application. No application, no entry.
- Incumbent politicians are welcome, however must represent only that office. No campaigning allowed in Parade.
- Parade Contact is responsible for making unit aware of and communicating all rules and regulations to, and understood by, the unit's participants.
- The Parade Committee will determine suitability of all entrants.
- All decisions are final. All entries are subject to the approval of the parade committee.

Parade Day Guidance

- All entries must remain in the order assigned by Staging Crew.
- We require that you stay on the parade route and keep pace with the unit in front.
- For yours and the crowd's safety, no passing out or throwing anything from your unit. Watch for children along parade route.
- Please use adequate identification of your group or sponsor on your entry.
 - Must have a banner carried at front of unit.
- Parade begins at 9:00 a.m., assembly start times vary.
- Stay hydrated throughout the parade route and apply sunscreen prior to parade start.
- All participants must abide by the rules and regulations established by the Parade Committee.
- Parade will end at Kapi'olani Park.
 - Keep right on Kalākaua Avenue and be mindful of Parade staff.
 - Look out for volunteers directing marching units back to your buses
 - All music/loud sounds are to cease as group crosses Kapahulu Avenue to avoid disturbing the animals of the Honolulu Zoo, per city ordinance.
 - Do not approach horses for both participant and horse safety.

The King Kamehameha Celebration Floral Parade Committee reserves the right of placement of all parade units. Placement will be determined by royal Hawaiian protocols, as well as for the most pleasant, safe, smooth-running parade possible.

Parade narrative: Due May 22, 2019 – Email to kkcc@hawaii.gov

- ✓ Describe your organization and unit in less than 75 words; 20pt font, one page.
- ✓ Use bullet points to allow for proper spacing.
- ✓ Narratives exceeding 75 words will be edited at the discretion of the Parade Committee.
- ✓ Suggestions:
 - Organization's purpose – what are you all about? Who are you?
 - Organization's history – date of establishment, notable members, etc.
 - List of members (and titles/offices if they hold any) in the unit
 - Past King Kamehameha Celebration participation information
 - Upcoming events or fund raisers for organization
 - Any relevant information you would like to include
- ✓ Narrative may be used for television broadcast and will be read at all Announcer Stands along the Parade route.
- ✓ Due no later than MAY 22, 2019, but may be turned in earlier; any narratives or changes to narratives received after this date are not guaranteed to be included in the overall Parade Script.
- ✓ Keep in mind, this is meant to be short, concise and to the point as the unit will be moving while Narrative is being read by Parade Announcer.
