

Governor's Conference on the Year 2000

Authority: Executive Order issued by Gov. John A. Burns on June 30, 1969
(amended by Executive Order issued on September 30, 1969)

Date of Conference: The Conference was held in Honolulu on August 5 - 8, 1970.
700 citizens from throughout Hawaii were delegates to the Conference.

Purpose of the Conference: The purpose of the Conference was to seriously discuss and determine Hawaii's preferred political, social and economic futures and decide the means by which Hawaii's citizenry can reach these preferred futures.

Means: A 21-member Advisory Committee was responsible for planning, conducting and evaluating the Conference and for making recommendations for carry-over activities.

Prior to the actual Conference, interim future-oriented panel discussions and lectures were held to stimulate interest in the Conference.

Additionally, 13 Taks Forces, involving 300 individuals, prepared studies to be used at conference workshops.

The actual Conference consisted of workshops and plenary sessions with featured speakers.

Staff assistance for the Conference was provided by the University of Hawaii.

Results of the Conference: Hawaii 2000: Continuing Experiment in Anticipatory Democracy (Honolulu: University Press of Hawaii, 1973), edited by George Chaplin and Glenn D. Paige, fully describes the results of the Conference.
