

Department of Accounting and General Services

Hawai'i State Archives

Reclaiming Kalākaua

In celebration of Archives Month 2019, the Hawai'i State Archives presents "Reclaiming Kalākaua"-- an illustrated research presentation by author Dr. Tiffany Lani Ing with a supplemental address on primary source research by Dr. Ronald Williams Jr. of the Hawai'i State Archives

The event will include oli, hula, and a mini-exhibition of original documents and artifacts from the 1881 voyage around the world by His Hawaiian Majesty Mō'i David La'amea Kamanakapu'u Mahinulani Nālōia'ehuokalani Lumialani Kalākaua.

When:

October 19, 2019
2:00 pm – 3:30 pm

Where:

Hawai'i State Capitol Building
State Capitol Auditorium,
Chamber level

Call No. PP-96-13-012

Program:

- 2:00 – 2:10 Welcome and Introduction from Hawai'i State Archivist Adam Jansen, PhD
- 2:10 – 2:15 Oli/Hula Honoring His Majesty Mō'i Kalākaua
- 2:15 – 2:45 "Beyond the Jaunt: Reconsidering King Kalākaua's 1881 Circumnavigation of the Globe" by Tiffany Lani Ing, PhD
- 2:45 – 3:15 "Archiving Rule: Documentary resources from the reign of Mō'i Kalākaua at the Hawai'i State Archives" by Ronald Williams Jr., PhD
- 3:15 – 3:30 Question and Answer session

ARCHIVES MONTH October 2019 Learn more at <http://ags.hawaii.gov/archives>