RECORDS OF GOVERNOR GEORGE R. ARIYOSHI
1963-1986

INTRODUCTION

The records created during the administration of Governor George R. Ariyoshi between 1974 and 1986 consist of memoranda and correspondence. There are a few record items dated prior to 1974. The records were received in several accessions between 1975 and 1986; transfer documentation consisting of transmittal memoranda is available, although not complete.

Although access to the collection is generally unrestricted, some material is restricted under one of the several provisions of Hawaii's public records law, the Uniform Information Practices Act (Modified), Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS) 92-F. Folders containing restricted material are so marked, and must be screened by an archivist before access may be granted.

AGENCY HISTORY

The executive power of the State is vested in a Governor who is the Chief Executive Officer of the State of Hawaii. The Governor is elected by the voters to a full term of four years. The 1978 Constitutional Convention limits an individual to serve as Governor for no more than two consecutive full terms.

The general duties of the Governor include the execution of all State laws, determining broad goals for the state, formulating and administering the policies and budget of the Executive Branch, and maintaining general control of Executive Branch departments and agencies, and the programs and activities administratively assigned to the Governor's Office.

Generally, the Governor nominates and, by and with the advice and consent of the State Senate, the Governor appoints executive department heads, Supreme Court justices, intermediate appellate and circuit courts judges, and members to boards and commissions. Vacancies in the State House of Representatives, certain vacancies in the State Senate, and vacancies on various boards and commissions are filled by the Governor. The Governor appoints the chief justice, supreme court justices, judges to the intermediate appellate and circuit courts from a list of nominees transmitted by the Judicial Selection Commission.
The Governor's authority includes the approval or veto of legislation passed by the Legislature and the power to call the Legislature into special session. At the beginning of each legislative session, the Governor may report to the legislature the current affairs of the state and recommend measures for consideration.

Additionally, the Governor is the commander in chief of the armed forces of the State; is responsible for arranging of interstate compacts; and empowered to grant reprieves and pardons in quasi-judicial actions.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The bulk of the records cover Governor George R. Ariyoshi's administration from 1974 to 1986. Records dated prior to 1974 include former Governor Burns' appointment logs, 1963-1974; and files documenting then Lieutenant Governor Ariyoshi's role in the Kauai and Kohala Task Forces.

The records document Governor Ariyoshi's administrative functions in managing the Office of Governor, the Executive departments, and agencies; approving or vetoing of legislation; appointing executive agency heads and deputies; appointing individuals to executive boards and commissions; appointing individuals to fill judicial and legislative vacancies; fulfilling ceremonial functions such as attending conferences and state functions, and hosting visiting dignitaries; and responding to constituent concerns relating to state government issues.

The records comprise one series, Correspondence, which is organized into four subseries: Correspondence with State Executive Departments; Records Relating to Executive Functions and Agencies Within the Governor's Office; Correspondence with Other Branches and Levels of Government; and Miscellaneous Correspondence.
The bulk of the series consists of correspondence with State Executive Departments which document routine administrative actions and the administration's attempts to curtail state government spending. The Governor's responses to constituent letters are documented throughout the series in folders labelled general correspondence.

Comments from the Attorney General and other executive department heads concerning legislation transmitted to the Governor for approval or veto are located in files labelled Acts in the subseries Correspondence with Other Branches and Levels of Government.

Gubernatorial appointments to executive departments, agencies, boards, and commissions; and to fill judicial and legislative vacancies are documented in Records Relating to Executive Functions and Agencies Within the Governor's Office. The nominee lists to fill judicial vacancies transmitted by the Judicial Selection Commission to the Governor were not transferred to the State Archives.

The Governor's speeches; any minutes of meetings between the Governor and his cabinet; minutes or notes of meetings between the Governor and other government officials, businesses, and community groups; and records documenting problem-solving and decision-making on various state government issues were not transferred to the State Archives.

The Governor's administration records were transferred to the State Archives in various accessions. Archivists determined the probable filing scheme of the Governor's administration records and interfiled the various accessions accordingly.

Materials removed from the administration records during processing include the following: artifacts, audiotapes, brochures, copies of legislation, government publications, newsletters, pamphlets, photographs, xerographic copies of proclamations 1980-1986, sales literature, trade books, and videotapes. Records disposed per Archives Collection policy include duplicate records, form letters, greeting cards, messages 1981-1986, petitions, post cards, routine requests to the Governor for flags, license plates, recipes, his autograph, biography, photograph, routine CIP Project Information and Justification memoranda, allotment advices, and requests to advertise for bid forms. State of Hawaii publications were transferred to the government publications collection. Federal, county, and other state government publications were disposed. Artifacts, audiotapes, photographs, trade books, and videotapes within the parameters of the Archives collection development policy were transferred to Special Collections.
Related government records in the State Archives custody include the administration records of Governors Dole, Carter, Frear, Pinkham, McCarthy, Farrington, Judd, Poindexter, Stainback, Long, King, Quinn, Burns, and Waihee. The Records of Quasi-Judicial Executive Actions (Series 203) documents gubernatorial actions in granting commutations of sentence, paroles, pardons, death and extradition warrants, and reprieves. Private papers of various former Governors of Hawaii are filed in the Manuscript Collections of the State Archives.
