Introduction

Following the United States declaration of war against Germany, the Office of Alien Property Custodian was established by Executive Order 2927-A on October 12, 1917 under authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, October 6, 1917. The Custodian was to assume control and dispose of enemy-owned property in the United States and its possessions. In 1918, the Alien Property Custodian, A. Mitchell Palmer, appointed Trent Trust Company Limited (Trent Trust) as depository, agent, bailee, and attorney in fact of money or other property of enemies or allies of enemies. Ownership of enemy property was transferred from businesses and individuals such as H. Hackfeld and Company, Limited, and the Estate of Otto Ernst Isenberg to the Trust between 1918 and 1924. Richard H. Trent, President of Trent Trust Company was appointed proxy for the Alien Property Custodian, with full power of substitution in stockholders meetings of H. Hackfeld Company and J.F. Hackfeld Company. The Alien Property Custodian Records of Trent Trust were transferred to the Hawaii State Archives in 1964.

Agency History

Trent Trust was established in 1907 by Richard H. Trent, Cecil Brown, Irwin Beadle, C.H. Cooke, and James Lyle to do business as a trust company which recorded and prepared abstracts of land titles; performed as surety executors, administrators, guardians and trustees; acted as auditors, accountants, actuaries and brokers; purchased, took on lease, exchanged, hired, acquired or held lands; purchased, took over, or undertook whole or part of a business; raised or borrowed money and secured the payment of money raised or borrowed either by charge of mortgage or deed of trust; made, drew, accepted, endorsed and or executed negotiable instruments; exercised the power and privilege of making and entering into contracts; and received for investment deposits of money and loaned the same on mortgage and or collaterals and collected and accounted for dividends, profits and income arising from such acts and services.

As depository, agent, bailee, and attorney in fact of money or other property of enemies or allies of enemies in the Territory of Hawaii, Trent Trust had the power to collect the income from income-bearing securities of enemy individuals or businesses and to collect any principal which might be owing to any enemy individuals or businesses which had been reported. The Trust was authorized to make leases, not exceeding one year, except with the consent of the Custodian. The Trust was authorized to pay any taxes or administration expenses on any of the enemy property, but was prohibited from investing any funds belonging to an enemy which came into its hands, and from bringing any suit or selling any property whatsoever except by a specific authorization of the Alien Property Custodian.

M-490 ALIEN PROPERTY CUSTODIAN RECORDS OF TRENT TRUST CO., LTD.

The following is a chronology of events beginning with Trent Trust's appointment as depository for the Alien Property Custodian and ending with the trust's dissolution:

- 1918        Alien Property Custodian appoints Trent Trust Co., Ltd. as depository for seized enemy property in the Territory of Hawaii. Enemy properties are seized and deposited in Trent Trust. To preserve the business of H. Hackfeld some stocks are sold to minimize German control of the corporation and board of directors who are German are replaced by Americans. The Alien Property Custodian does not approve and the transfer is reversed.
- 1918-1924    Ownership of property, mainly stocks, is transferred from H. Hackfeld Company; J. F. Hackfeld Company; Estate of Otto Ernst Isenberg; and the J.C. Glade, Clara Glade, Paul Isenberg, and H.H. Pflueger Trusts to Trent Trust. Trent Trust obtains controlling interest in H. Hackfeld Company. All H. Hackfeld Company stock is sold to American Factors and proceeds are distributed to stockholders.
- 1924        J.F. Hackfeld claims to be an American citizen and is fully reimbursed of the proceeds of the sale of the J. F. Hackfeld Limited stock. Stockholders file simultaneous suits against Trent Trust in Honolulu for selling H. Hackfeld stock too cheaply.
- 1928        The War Claims Act authorizes return of eighty percent of properties seized and expropriation of the remaining balance.
- 1929        Suits against Trent Trust are consolidated and one suit is filed in San Francisco for all shareholders of H. Hackfeld Company.
- 1931        Richard Trent resigns and ownership of Trent Trust is transferred to Cooke Trust Company. Trent Trust continues to exist because it is involved in litigation with shareholders and heirs to the seized properties who claim that the shares were sold too cheaply to competing businesses. The Internal Revenue Service tries to collect taxes from the Trust.
- 1935        U.S. Court of Appeals upholds the sale of $7.5 million assets of H. Hackfeld to American Factors.
- 1936        U.S. Government files suit against Estate of J.F. Hackfeld after discovering that he was not an American citizen.
- 1942        The U.S. Supreme Court rules in favor of the U.S. Government and Estate of J.F. Hackfeld is required to pay back the difference between what an American citizen would have received from the Alien Property Custodian through the liquidation of J.F. Hackfeld stocks, and what a German national would have received through the War Claims Act. Trent Trust sustains losses as Alien Property Custodian depository and tries to recoup from the U.S. Government.
- 1955        Cooke Trust is appointed receiver for Trent Trust under Equity No. 3248 in the First Judicial Circuit, Territory of Hawaii. Fees to the attorneys hired by Trent Trust left the trust with no assets.
- 1974        Trent Trust is dissolved on February 6.

Series Description

Series No.: M-490

Series Title: Alien Property Custodian Records of Trent Trust Company, Limited

Date Range: 1907-1937

Quantity: 3.75 cubic feet of paper records, 0.33 cubic feet of oversize records, and 0.48 linear feet in 3 volumes.

Physical Characteristics: Mostly typescript, original and copies. Includes a few manuscript records and photocopies of newspaper clippings.

Content Description: These records were created while Trent Trust was the depository, agent, bailee, and attorney in fact of money or other property of enemies or allies of enemies in the Territory of Hawaii from 1918-1937, for the Alien Property Custodian, A. Mitchell Palmer. A. Mitchell Palmer was a judge of the U.S. Court of Claims in Washington, D.C. Include records of the following seized properties: Julie Barckhausen Trust; Clara Glade Trust; J.C. Glade Trust; H. Hackfeld and Company, Limited; J.F. Hackfeld, Limited; J.C. Isenberg Trust; Estate of Otto Ernst Isenberg; Paul Isenberg Trust; R.M. Isenberg Trust; Kopke Clarifier Company, Limited; H.H. Pflueger Trust; J.C. Pflueger Trust; J.W. Pflueger Trust; and Clara Seilcken (Schwarz) Trust.

The records consist of:

- articles of incorporation and bylaws of H. Hackfeld Company, J.F. Hackfeld Company, and Trent Trust;
- trusteeship records which transfer ownership of properties from H. Hackfeld Company, J.F. Hackfeld Company, Estate of Otto Ernst Isenberg, Glade, Isenberg, and Pflueger Trusts to Trent Trust;
- court documents relating to the various lawsuits filed by the shareholders of H. Hackfeld and heirs of Otto Ernst Isenberg, the U.S. Government to recover excess monies paid Estate of J. F. Hackfeld, and Trent Trust vs. U.S. Government to recover costs incurred as depository;
- newspaper clippings including Dixie Doolittle articles (see note);
- financial statements for H. Hackfeld Company, J.F. Hackfeld Company, and Trent Trust
- correspondence;
- list of stockholders and reports for American Factors;
- tax returns for H. Hackfeld, J. F. Hackfeld, and Trent Trust.

The records are valuable as documentation of big business activities in Hawaii during the Territorial period and federal government activity against enemies. The records also document

M-490 ALIEN PROPERTY CUSTODIAN RECORDS OF TRENT TRUST CO., LTD.

German successes in business in Hawaii prior to World War I and the court cases which decided how much those businesses were worth.

Note: Articles attacking the Americanism of certain officers of H. Hackfeld and Company, Limited were submitted to the newspapers by Richard Trent under the pen name "Dixie Doolittle" from 1917 to 1918. These articles were eventually used in court cases to prove that there was a conspiracy to force the sale of H. Hackfeld and Company.

Arrangement: Alphabetical by company and individual names and thereunder by document type and chronological.

Access: Access is unrestricted.

Prepared by: G. Vergara-Bautista      Date Completed: June, 2002

"Aloha Oe" Memorial Fund, 1929.

History.

In 1929, the fiftieth year since the song "Aloha Oe" had first been printed and performed publicly, A.P. Taylor, T.H. Archivist, proposed a suitable memorial to the song be placed on the grounds of the former home of its author, Queen Liliuokalani. Cost of this memorial was to be paid by popular subscription, with the maximum donation per subscriber set at $1, the goal to be $1500. Fund-raising started Feb.23, and John Snell, a Star-Bulletin reporter, collected the gifts at the paper's business office.

The memorial, a bronze tablet embedded in a boulder from Kaimuki, designed by Kate Harland Kelly (Mrs. John M.) and cast by the Gorham Co., N.Y., bore the verses in Hawaiian and the melody's score, above which was a bust of Liliuokalani.

Original date for dedication was Sept.2, Liliuokalani's birthday; actual dedication was Sept.16, her wedding anniv.

M-350 American Club of Honolulu.

History.

According to reminiscences of A. S. Cleghorn, an early American Club was formed in the late 1850's, with about 200 members; this early organization faded into a state of suspension within the next decade.

On Aug.1, 1868, the Club was [re-]organized with 25 subscribers; no record is found of its dissolution, although A. S. Cleghorn suggested that the membership was absorbed eventually into the British Club, later the Pacific Club.
