

CHARLES WILLIAM ZIEGLER
(1859 – 1938)

- 1859 Born August 8 in Mainz, Germany
- 1869 Family moved to San Francisco
- 1876 Non-commissioned officer, California National Guard
- 1882 Married Julia Theresa Donovan
September 17, arrived in Honolulu aboard steamer Suez, to upholster King Kalakaua's coronation coaches
- 1887 Sergeant-Major in Honolulu Rifles
March 2, became member of Knights of Pythias
- 1888 May 11, Second Lieutenant in Hawaiian Volunteers
- 1889 August 1, Captain in Hawaiian Volunteers
- 1893 February 9, Captain in National Guard of Hawaii
- 1898 December 10, Major in National Guard of Hawaii
- 1902 December 1, Lieutenant-Colonel, National Guard of Hawaii
- 1907 March 29, Colonel in National Guard of Hawaii
- 1913 Until 1918, Adjutant-General of National Guard of Hawaii
- 1934 Fourth District Delegate to Territorial Republican Convention
- 1938 Died July 3 in Honolulu
Owned and operated Hawaiian Carriage Manufacturing Company for about 22 years until 1918.
Participated in all the major political disturbances from the Constitution forced upon King Kalakaua in 1887 until Annexation in 1898
- Box 1-1 Reminiscences of C. W. Ziegler, 1882 – 1934 in Hawaii, August 8, 1935, 11 pages; A toast to C. W. Ziegler celebrating his 50 years in the Knights of Pythias Lodge, n.d.; A brief description of the Battle of Manila Bay,

M-398

May 1, 1898; Two issues of The Outer Guard, 1929; Letter, October 11, 1898; Newspaper clippings, n.d., 1963

M-398

Scrapbook, "Reminiscences of the Old Guard", contains military commissions, photographs and numerous newspaper clippings concerning the political events, from the Constitution forced upon King Kalakaua in 1887, to Annexation in 1898, in which Ziegler was involved as an officer in the National Guard of Hawaii.