4. Public Comments. Chair Wiig noted that three written testimonies had been received and placed in the SBCC website. Christopher Delaunay and Nathaniel Kinney reiterated their concerns over certain sections of the 2018 IBC unfairly favoring manufactured homes. They favor deleting sections of the 2018 IBC and stressed that when a subcommittee on the subject is formed, the subcommittee proceed very slowly and deliberately.

Mr. Rogers called a point of order, saying that the comments should be made during discussion on the IBC and IRC subcommittees. He pointed out that the same comments had been made several times prior and valuable time was being taken up when the SBCC should be discussing new items

There followed extensive discussion of policies and procedures. It was pointed out at that the December 15, 2020 meeting it was agreed that testimony on new items should be limited to three minutes, and to one minute on repeat items. It was further agreed that the agreed-upon policies and procedures should be posted at the head of subsequent SBCC agendas. Mr. Rogers made a motion and Mr. Carden seconded and the motion was unanimously passed.

Mr. Bukowski said that he thought the subcommittee on modular homes had been established and later corrected himself, saying that the October 2020 minutes reflected Mr. Haigh discussing formation of the subcommittee but that Mr. Haigh was replaced on the SBCC shortly thereafter and the matter was not pursued.

5. The minutes of December 15, 2020 were unanimously approved.
6. Subcommittee on the IBC and IRC. Mr. Carden said that the of adopting the 2018 IBC was tabled, pending further discussion. Mr. Meyers said the 2018 IRC had been adopted in November 2020.
7. Subcommittee on the IECC. Mr. Wiig said the 2018 IECC had been adopted at the December 2020 meeting and that training would commence in the Spring of 2021.
8. Green code- no report
9. Mechanical code- no report
10. Fire code. Mr. Rogers reported that the 2018 Fire Code had been approved by the CBO just an hour earlier and made a motion that the SBCC adopt same. Mr. Carden seconded, and the code was unanimously adopted. Mr. Rogers announced that training would be provided.
11. There were no reports from the remaining subcommittees
