MESSAGE FROM THE COMPTROLLER

Comptroller's Corner

Aloha Team DAGS!

I would like to start by expressing my sincere gratitude to Governor Green for providing me the honor of being able to serve alongside such an incredible group of dedicated, hardworking, and caring individuals. These past three months has been an amazing experience as our new leadership team worked diligently to acclimate to our new roles.

Together, we've successfully navigated some challenging issues, reviewed internal processes, and provided the critical support needed to ensure we were moving forward in the right direction. We are grateful to each of the divisions and attached agencies for their willingness to explore new ways of approaching old issues. There is no doubt in my mind that, as we walk down this path together, we will transform DAGS into one of the State's flagship departments but that change will only be possible if we support each other.

As part of our efforts to improve understanding and awareness, we are proud to launch the inaugural edition of the DAGS Dispatch, a quarterly newsletter created especially for you! As I have found in my 16+ years in government service, communication is one of the most important keys to success. We hope that you find the stories, photos and other tidbits in your newsletter helpful and interesting. As we continue to build on this newsletter, we are seeking your input and involvement by joining our newsletter committee, submitting articles and photos, and helping to share the newsletter throughout our team and beyond.

In addition to our newsletter, we have also launched our social media sites on Facebook, Instagram, and LinkedIn in an effort to further improve our outreach and communication with the community we serve. If you are interested in connecting with us via social media, please visit our website at <https://ags.hawaii.gov/>.

I look forward to having the opportunity to meet each of you over the next few weeks and months.

Mahalo!

From The Deputy's Desk...

Hello and welcome to the inaugural edition of the DAGS Dispatch!

At noon, on December 5, 2022, Keith Regan and I took over the reins at this wonderful department from the capable hands of former Comptroller, Curt Otaguro, and Deputy Comptroller, Audrey Hidano. Since then, we have been running at full speed as we tackle the many challenges that come along with our roles, while endeavoring to build relationships with those we serve and learn how we can better serve.

To be successful, we are cognizant of the fact that we cannot do it alone. Our employees are the key to our success.

The DAGS Dispatch is where we will be sharing information on departmental projects that are impactful to stakeholders, announcements of upcoming events that are of interest, articles that inform on topics of wellness and preparedness, tips and tricks, and employee news, among other things. We are particularly excited and look forward to profiling our employee accomplishments and recognizing the great work of our employees.

With the launching of this newsletter, we begin our efforts to engage our employees, elected officials and our community, and we invite you to partner with us on this exciting journey.

MEOH-LING SILLIMAN

Emergency Repair Work Completed on Holiday

by: Eric Agena, Kauai District Office

Just because the week ends doesn't mean the work ends, and emergencies don't take holidays!

On the neighbor islands, the DAGS District Offices provide repair and maintenance services for the public schools and provide assistance in times of need. The President's Day holiday was no exception.

On Sunday afternoon preceding the President's Day holiday, DAGS Kauai District Office received a call from Kauai High School about a water-line leak that was discovered on campus. Both school and DAGS staff responded to the call but, despite their best efforts, the leak could not be isolated, so water service to the entire school had to be shut off to prevent the continued loss of water.

The problem is that, if a campus has no water, the school needs to be cancelled for health and safety reasons, so it was critical to repair the line as soon as possible.

Thankfully a local contractor, Cushnie Construction, was available with a crew the next day to perform the emergency repair. The Kauai Department of Water was also available and willing to loan the contractor the parts needed to expeditiously complete the repairs.

It was found that a large root from a nearby monkeypod tree sandwiched itself between a concrete jacket and a six inch cast iron waterline, causing the line to crack and leak onto the driveway above. The root had to be removed and it proved to be a formidable adversary, as it was so dense it took a combination of three saws (a Sawzall, a circular saw, and even a chainsaw), a mud gun, and sheer will and determination to remove it. Once the root was gone, the actual repair work on the line could begin, and the repair was completed just as a torrential downpour began.

Thanks to the combined efforts of the contractor, school, and DAGS personnel, and the generosity of the Department of Water in lending the needed parts, water service was restored in time for school to open the next day.

Building Civic Engagement and Lifelong Voters

by Jaime Kataoka, Office of Elections

It's reported that turnout among young voters has been on the rise across the nation. In fact, during the 2022 Elections, turnout among voters under 30 was the second highest that it's been in the past three decades.

Why is this important? Participation by any group of eligible voters is surely something to celebrate! But we at the Office of Elections are especially excited to hear that the youth vote is increasing as we believe this to have a great impact on the overall health of our democratic process.

When citizens are civically engaged early in life, it is more likely that they'll have built a habit around voting and remain engaged in the future!

How can we grow youth participation? One of the most powerful ways we can encourage this early engagement is by getting Hawaii's young people registered to vote. Voter pre-registration is just the tool for that.

What is Voter Pre-Registration?

It's simple! To pre-register means that you have registered to vote ahead of turning 18. If you are at least 16 years old, a U.S. citizen, and a resident of Hawaii, you are eligible to pre-register.

Those who have pre-registered don't have to do anything further. As soon as they turn 18, they will automatically receive their ballot in the mail for every election.

Fun fact! Hawaii is 1 of 15 states and Washington, D.C. to allow teens 16+ to register to vote.

Hawaii's Annual Young Voter Registration Program

Each year, our office invites all public, charter, and private high schools statewide to participate in our Young Voter Registration Program (YVRP). We distribute thousands of voter registration applications to the participating schools and work with school liaisons to help students complete and submit the application. We also provide voter education materials addressing questions they may have about the voting process.

We recently wrapped this year's program, which ran from September 2022 through January 2023. Seventeen schools participated, giving thousands of Hawaii students the opportunity to register to vote conveniently from their classrooms.

Shout out to the students and faculty from this year's participating schools: Assets High School, Doris Todd Christian Academy, James B. Castle High School, James Campbell High School, Kahuku High School, Kalani High School, Kamaile Academy PCS, Kamehameha Schools Hawaii, Kau High School, Lahainaluna High School, Lanai High School, Maryknoll School, Punahou School, Seabury Hall, Theodore Roosevelt High School, University Laboratory School, Wallace Rider Farrington High School.

Do Your Part!

First, let's make sure that your voter registration is in order by using the online voter registration system at elections.hawaii.gov. If your information is current, you're all set!

Next, if anyone in your household is 16+, encourage them to register to vote today.

- Got a Hawaii Driver License or Hawaii State ID? Register to vote online at elections.hawaii.gov
- No State-Issued ID? Complete a paper Voter Registration Application. Instructions for submitting are on the application.

DAGS Logo Contest Underway

State Procurement Office Shares Its Initiatives

by: Ruth Baker, State Procurement Office

Procurement Consolidation Working, Act 282, SLH 2022, established a working group to develop a plan for the phased-in consolidation of procurement services and staff within executive branch agencies within a five-year timespan and requires the working group to make recommendations for attracting high-quality procurement professionals to the State. An interim report was submitted to the Legislature in December 2022. Moving forward, the SPO will be conducting monthly meetings with department stakeholders to decide on a business model for the consolidation.

Small Business Initiative, Act 168, SLH 2022, established a five-year small business initiative to assist small businesses, particularly Native Hawaiian owned, women-owned, and veteran-owned to contract with government entities. The bill appropriated funds for a small business coordinator in the SPO, plus procure the services of a contractor to provide outreach services. The SPO is currently negotiating with a vendor for the services.

eProcurement Automation System. The SPO has selected a contractor to develop an eMarketPlace and eProcurement system. The contract is in the process and we expect to start development in May 2023.

SPO Fun Fact: Seven of the SPO staff speak languages other than English are available to provide assistance to Limited English Proficient persons. Languages represented in the SPO are as follows: Japanese, Cantonese, Ilokano, Tagalog, Thai, German, and Swedish. One SPO staffer is tri-lingual!
