

Reawakening the

The power of the human voice has captivated audiences for as long as language has existed. While printed words have power, the delivery of those words can provide a far more persuasive argument than the words themselves – spoken word can elicit deep emotional connections and reactions. Your Public Archives has spent the past year digitizing obsolete media formats in order to empower our ancestors with the ability to share their wisdom – in their own words, through their own voice.

Voices of the Past

ARCHIVES MONTH October 2023

Join us weekly in October for new content at <https://ags.hawaii.gov/archives>. Follow us on Facebook and Instagram for Announcements and Photo-of-the-Day!

@HawaiiStateArchives

